Weldyn

and Barb are Co-Directors for the Asia Pacific Education Office (APEO). The focus of this ministry is to assist and walk alongside of Bible Colleges throughout the Asia Pacific Region. This ministry will concentrate on faculty development, e.g. helping the teachers to become more integrative in their teaching. Furthermore, assistance will be given in the area of theological curriculum relevancy. All theological curricula should be relevant to Asian societies and concerns, which include the postmodern youth, the common laborers, the farmers, and the urbanites.

In addition to the above field duties, Weldyn and Barb teach at Northwest University (Kirkland, WA) as the Missionary in Residence (MIR & Interim Coordinator for Intercultural Studies Program). These positions allows them to teach classes, mentor students, and have many one on one sessions with students interested in missions and cross cultural ministries. Equally important they bring the mission field concepts and reports into the classroom.

Please take time to review the home page news update. We desire to see the Kingdom of God expanded and reaching into all people groups. Prayer is the key for church planting, harvesting, and an essential element to maintain a Christian presence within the local community of Christ's followers.
